About HeinOnline

HeinOnline is a premiere online product with more than 100 million pages of legal history available in an online, fully-searchable, image-based format. HeinOnline bridges the gap in legal history by providing comprehensive coverage from inception of more than 2,000 law and law-related periodicals. In addition to its vast collection of law journals, HeinOnline also contains the Congressional Record Bound volumes in their entirety, complete coverage of the U.S. Reports back to 1754, famous world trials dating back to the early 1700's, legal classics from the 18th & 19th centuries, the United Nations and League of Nations Treaty Series, all United States Treaties, the Federal Register from inception in 1936, the CFR from inception to 1938, and much more.

Now in more than 3,200 locations in over 175 countries, HeinOnline is the world's largest image-based legal research collection and contains more than 9 centuries of legal history. HeinOnline is a product of William S. Hein & Co., Inc., which has been serving the library community for 50 years as a legal publisher and the world's largest distributor of legal periodicals.

Newly Available!

Now Providing Access to Case Law Powered by Fastcase

Case law is integrated into all HeinOnline Core subscriptions free of charge. This provides federal and state law powered by Fastcase via inline hyperlinks, and also allows the ability to retrieve case law by citation. The federal case coverage includes the judicial opinions of the Supreme Court (1754-present), Federal Circuits (1924-present), Board of Tax Appeals (vols. 1-47), Tax Court Memorandum Decisions (vols. 1-59), U.S. Customs Court (vols. 1-70), Board of Immigration Appeals (1996-present), Federal District Courts (1924-present), and Federal Bankruptcy Courts (1 B.R. 1-present). The state case law covers all fifty states, with nearly half of the states dating back to the 1800s. Coverage for the remaining states dates back to approximately 1950.

Has anyone used @fastcase on @HeinOnline yet? It's fantastic! Can't say enough good things about this partnership."
