HEINONLINE SCHOLASTIC

Where College-Preparatory Research Begins

Engaging in research helps students understand where they are, recognize where they have been, and imagine where they could go. The process exercises the physical brain and nourishes the intellectual mind, leading them to new opportunities and discoveries. For a task so essential to their growth and advancement, your students will need the best tool.

At HeinOnline, we want to set you and your students up for success. Overly expensive, incomplete, or difficult-to-use resources muddy the research process, making the experience a drag. With HeinOnline Scholastic, find the research material and guidance your school needs in one place at a fraction of the cost.

INTUITIVE TOOLS

FOR ANY LEVEL

To help both novice and experienced researchers make the most of its content, HeinOnline Scholastic includes a number of artificial intelligence tools and research aids. Using natural language processing and machine learning combined with custom concepts specific to HeinOnline's incredible scope and range of content, our suite of tools are a must-have for any student.

Keyword Search Builder

With the Keyword Search Builder, your students can adjust the impact weight of various keywords. Select a title to search within or enter a date range to narrow down the results. Find the Keyword Search Builder in the Advanced Option of various databases.

More Like This

The More Like This button helps your students find articles similar to the current article they are viewing. Using an algorithm, this feature discovers "interesting words" within the article and generates a list of similar articles based on the frequency of the words.

Citation Guidance

The Cite button on article pages provides a variety of citation formats, including MLA, APA, Chicago, Bluebook, OSCOLA, and McGill Guide. Students can further export their citations to NoodleTools, Endnote, Zotero, or as a text file from the same Cite button in HeinOnline.

Topics and Entities

Machine-learned topics and entities (frequently-mentioned locations, persons, and organizations) are generated from various journal articles in HeinOnline. Students may use the topics and entities to better refine their searches or to learn more about a particular article just from a glance.

Venn Diagram Search

Help your students learn how to structure a search by visualizing the power of keyword combinations with the new Venn Diagram Search in HeinOnline. Use this unique tool within one database or across all subscribed databases to better refine any search.

MyHein

MyHein is HeinOnline's personal research tool. Anyone with HeinOnline access may create a free MyHein account to bookmark documents, save search queries, and set up electronic table of contents alerts. In addition, create bookmark tags and export saved bookmarks in various formats.

Author Profile Pages

Author Profile Pages are an excellent way for students to discover a particular author's scholarly work. This page provides citation count information about a particular author, the author's frequently discussed subjects and topics, and a list of the author's works in HeinOnline.

ScholarCheck

ScholarCheck is a series of tools to help students quickly locate relevant material in HeinOnline. Among its many functions, ScholarCheck analyzes most-cited entities, hyperlinks cited material in a document for quick access, provides smart sorting options, and more.

Explore This Author

From within an Author Profile Page, students may use this feature to visualize the context of an author within his or her field. Through an interactive flow chart, the Explore This Author feature allows users to discover the author's frequent co-authors, topics, journals, organizations, and more.

HeinOnline Scholastic

A must-have college-preparatory resource for your high school program.

As a new subscriber to HeinOnline I have appreciated the well organized interface, which has made this resource easy to introduce to students and to faculty. Students value the wide variety of information that can be integrated into their research papers; teachers across the curriculum enjoy having another resource to support classroom learning. As a librarian I've been pleased with the ease of setup, the training that was provided and the low cost. Hein Online has been a valuable addition to our collection of databases
