DATABASES INCLUDED IN THE PACKAGE

HeinOnline's U.S. Core+ package is designed to provide a base of content to meet your research needs. HeinOnline's databases are dedicated to treaties, constitutions, case law, world trials, classic treatises, international trade, foreign relations, and much more.

Bremer-Kovacs Collection: Historic Documents Related to the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946
This database is a comprehensive database designed to make the APA's history more accessible and understandable. The database is rounded out with various tools to help researchers navigate the database, understand the documents in their rich historical context, and quickly identify the material most relevant to the user's precise interests. A comprehensive timeline charting the Act's passage is also included.

Canada Supreme Court Reports
HeinOnline's Canada Supreme Court Reports contains the official, bilingual series published under authority of the Supreme Court Act. This database includes more than 10,000 cases which include background information, statutes and regulations, authors cited, analysis and the decisions.

Civil Rights and Social Justice
This database brings together a diverse offering of publications covering civil rights in the United States as their legal protections and definitions are expanded to cover more and more Americans.

Code of Federal Regulations
The Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) is the codification of the general and permanent rules and regulations published in the Federal Register by the executive departments and agencies of the federal government of the United States.

CourtListener (U.S. State & Federal Case Law)
Explore a vast collection of U.S. state & federal case law through HeinOnline's integration with CourtListener. Case law may be accessed seamlessly via citation lookup or inline hyperlinking within documents that cite the case. Coverage includes 99% of all precedential legal case law published in the United States.

COVID-19: Pandemics Past and Present
This database contains publications on the various ways COVID-19 has impacted every aspect of life, from testing issues in the medical field to unemployment and economic impact. This database, much like our understanding of COVID-19, will continue to evolve as new content is published and integrated with regular updates. Importantly, this collection also features subcollections dedicated to Past Pandemics, and Vaccinations.

Criminal Justice & Criminology
This collection offers an historical overview of how criminal justice has changed in American and English law and the effect criminology has had in facilitating those changes. It collects government documents as well as rare or hard to find pamphlets, memoirs, and books written by ordinary law enforcement officers and not-so-famous criminals.

Early American Case Law
Contains the entire Federal Cases 30 book series (1894-1897) which contains more than 20,000 cases. Also included is the Trinity Series, which includes American Decisions, American Reports, and American State Reports.

English Reports
This database delivers exact page images of the original bound reprint edition of The English Reports, along with the Statutes of the Realm (1235-1713), and pre-1865 law reports for England and Wales.

Executive Privilege
A comprehensive resource for primary and secondary material relating to executive privilege. Access hundreds of congressional hearings, reports, memoranda, related scholarly articles, and other documents from all three government branches.

Federal Register Library
The Federal Register is the official journal of the federal government of the United States that contains government agency rules, proposed rules, and public notices. HeinOnline's coverage dates back to inception in 1936.

GAO Reports and Comptroller General Decisions
Included are reports on audits, surveys, investigations, and evaluations of federal programs conducted by the United States Government Accountability Office. All published reports, testimonies, correspondence, and publications are included.

Gun Regulation and Legislation in America
This database brings together essential periodicals, compiled legislative histories, CRS reports, Congressional hearings, United States Supreme Court briefs, monographs, and other related materials on the difficult and controversial topic of regulating firearms in the United States.

Law Academy Project
Discover the history of legal education in America through the works of the Law Academy, one of the earliest educational institutions in the United States for law-related education, established in 1821 in Philadelphia, PA. This database gathers the Academy's pamphlets and pairs them with biographical highlights of the author and a summary of its contents.

Law Journal Library
Contains more than 3,200 multidisciplinary journals covering 1500+ subjects. Coverage for all journals is from inception through the most currently published issues allowed based on contracts with publishers.

Law Library of Congress Reports
This collection—developed in collaboration with the Law Library of Congress—is an exclusive database boasting thousands of meticulously crafted reports on foreign, comparative, and international law.

Legal Classics
Includes tens of thousands of titles from some of the greatest legal minds in history, in addition to many classic treatises, and rare items that are found in only a handful of libraries globally.

LexBlog Library
Practitioner-authored legal commentary integrated into HeinOnline, connecting users with timely expert analysis across practice areas.

LGBTQ+ Rights
A collection of materials relating to the gay rights movement in America, including an interactive timeline, as well as subject-coded court cases, scholarly articles, books, pamphlets, reports, and more.

Military and Government
This collection brings together thousands of diverse publications related to the history, glory, might, and daily nitty-gritty of administrating America's fighting forces.

Military Legal Resources (U.S. Army JAG School)
Created in collaboration with the prestigious William Winthrop Memorial Library of the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's (JAG) School, this exclusive collection features hundreds of hard-to-find titles relating to the JAG Corps.

Open Society Justice Initiative
This database brings the Justice Initiative's scholarship to HeinOnline, providing access to works published by the Justice Initiative in HeinOnline's fully searchable, image-based format.

Pentagon Papers
Officially titled United States - Vietnam Relations, 1945-1967: A Study Prepared by the Department of Defense (DOD). These "Pentagon Papers" are a U.S. DOD history of the United States' political-military involvement in Vietnam from 1945-1967.

Revised Statutes of Canada
Complete coverage of all six revisions from the official printed volumes of the Revised Statutes of Canada, including a handy electronic table of contents to easily navigate within different section.

Slavery in America and the World: History, Culture & Law
This collection brings together a multitude of essential legal materials on slavery in the United States and the English-speaking world. This includes every statute passed by every colony and state on slavery, every federal statute dealing with slavery, and all reported state and federal cases on slavery.

U.S. Code
This database includes complete coverage of the U.S. Code dating back to inception in 1925-1926. Also includes the Early Federal Laws Collection, which represents the most complete collection of federal statute compilations prior to the U.S. Code.

U.S. Congressional Documents
This database features the complete Congressional Record Bound version, as well as the daily version back to 1980. It also includes the three predecessor titles: Annals of Congress (1789-1824), Register of Debates (1824-1837), and C*ongressional Globe* (1833-1873), and Congressional Hearings (early 1900s-present) and other important congressional material.

U.S. Congressional Serial Set
Now available entirely within HeinOnline, the U.S. Serial Set is considered an essential publication for unveiling American history. Spanning more than two centuries with more than 17,000 bound volumes, the records in this series include House & Senate Reports and Documents, and much more.

U.S. Federal Legislative History Library
Compiled legislative histories are composed of thousands of documents that are produced by Congress as a bill is introduced, studied and debated. These legislative documents are often used by attorneys, researchers and courts to help determine the intent behind a law or to clarify ambiguous statutory language.

U.S. Presidential Impeachment Library
To help researchers understand these rare but always fascinating historical events, HeinOnline now offers a new collection, U.S. Presidential Impeachment. Organized by the four affected presidents, this collection brings together a variety of documents both contemporaneous and asynchronous to each president's impeachment, presenting both a snapshot of the political climate as each impeachment played out and the long view history has taken of each proceeding.

U.S. Presidential Library
This database includes such titles as Messages and Papers of the Presidents, Public Papers of the Presidents, CFR Title 3 (Presidents), Daily and Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents, and other documents related to U.S. Presidents.

U.S. Statutes at Large
Includes complete coverage of the Statutes at Large, and features multiple browsing and searching options to enhance the online value over the paper volumes.

U.S. Supreme Court Library
Complete coverage of the official U.S. Reports bound volumes as well as preliminary prints, slip opinions, and books and periodicals related to the U.S. Supreme Court are available.

U.S. Treaties and Agreements Library
This library includes all U.S. treaties, whether currently in-force, expired, or not-yet officially published. This is the world's largest and most complete online collection of U.S. treaties and agreements and includes such prominent collections as the United States Treaties and Other International Agreements set (commonly referred to as the "Blue set"), as well as famous sets from Bevans, Miller, Malloy and others.
